

Jean Mead, EdD, CCC-SLP
COMMUNICATION SCIENCES & DISORDERS

Assistant Clinical Professor and Coordinator of Clinical Education
MMC Campus -- AHC3, Rm. 438
305-348-6831 | meadj@fiu.edu

EDUCATION

- Ed.D. Leadership Studies, West Virginia University, Morgantown, WV
- M.A. Communication Disorders, Marshall University, Huntington, WV
- B.A. Communication Disorders, Marshall University, Huntington, WV

AREA(S) OF SPECIALTY

- ASHA certified speech-language pathologist.
- The bulk of her work lies with the school-aged child.
- Her research interests include supervision, alternative therapies, pedagogy, and speech and language treatment and diagnosis of the bilingual child.

RESEARCH/SCHOLARSHIP

Mead, J. & Ramos, E. (May, 2011). Dual language treatment: A child with a severe phonological disorder. (Paper presented at FLASHA, Marco Island, FL).

Mead, J. & Ramos, E. (March 2011). Formal vs. informal Performance: Bilingual child with a Phonological Disorder. (Paper accepted for ASHA conference, fall 2011).

Ramos, E. & Mead, J. (November 2010). Phonological intervention in a bilingual Portuguese/English child. (Paper presented at American Speech, Language, Hearing Association, Philadelphia, PA).

Mead, J. & Hayden, M. (November, 2009). An interdisciplinary workshop for students: Fostering respect and knowledge. Paper presented at American Speech, Language, Hearing Association, New Orleans, LA.

Mead, J. (May 2008). How to engage students with disabilities and foster trust. Paper presented at Florida Association for Speech Language Pathologists, Orlando, FL.

Be Worlds
Ahead