

Nicolette Annette Stallworth, MS, ATC, LAT

Visiting Clinical Instructor, Athletic Training

Athletic Trainer

Student Health Services

305-348-5962

nstallwo@fiu.edu

EDUCATION

Doctor of Athletic Training Candidate (Jan 2018), A.T. Still University, Mesa, AZ

Master of Science in Athletic Training, Florida International University, Miami, FL

Bachelor of Science in Sports Psychology, Wayne State University, Detroit, MI

AREA OF SPECIALTY

- Visiting Clinical Professor at Florida International University (FL) 2015-Present
- Athletic Training Clinical Preceptor at Florida International University (FL) 2013-Present
- Head Athletic Trainer at Booker T. Washington Senior High (FL) 2012-2015
- Certified Athletic Trainer (20000010651), National Athletic Trainers' Association Board of Certification
- Licensed Athletic Trainer (AL 3299), Florida Department of Health Board of Athletic Training
- Certified Professional Rescuer, American Red Cross
- American Red Cross Instructor

RESEARCH/SCHOLARSHIP/PRESENTATIONS

Montalvo AM, Elbaun L, Stallworth NA. The effect of kinesiology tape on knee valgus during a drop vertical jump and squat. Recruitment of participants, data collection.

Stallworth N., Holliday C. Faculty Practice. Florida Athletic Training Educators Symposium. Lakeland, FL, June 2015.

Stallworth N., Morton T. Evaluation of Exertional Heat Illness and Assessment of Rectal Temperature. Lecture and Lab. Doctor's Hospital Fall Sports Medicine Symposium. Miami, FL, September 2014.

INTERESTS

- Sickle Cell Trait and Exertional Heat Illness in High School Football
- Concussion Management
- Faculty Practice
- Personal: sports, exercise, music, and food

FAVORITE QUOTE

"Certain things catch your eye, but pursue only those that capture your heart." –Unknown