Occupational therapy is a health care profession that focuses on helping people of all ages regain, develop, or master everyday skills in order to live independent, productive, and satisfying lives.

Occupational therapists work in a variety of practice areas including: physical disabilities, mental health, pediatrics, academics, and research. Within these practice areas occupational therapists have the opportunity to work in a multitude of settings including:

- Hospitals
- Acute care
- Inpatient rehab
- Outpatient rehab
- Specialty units (e.g. spinal cord injury)
- Psychiatric Units
- Pediatrics
- Nursing homes
- Home Health
- Work Rehabilitation
- Community Health
- Schools
- Private Clinics
- Private Practice
- Universities

Career Opportunities

- Employment of occupational therapists is expected to increase 33 percent between 2010 and 2020 according to the U.S. Department of Labor.
- The median annual salary of occupational therapists was $75,400 in 2012; 10% of OTs earned more than $108,200.
- FIU graduates are employed across Miami and the nation in the areas of mental health, productive aging, children and youth, health and wellness, work and industry, rehabilitation, disability and participation.

ABOUT THE PROFESSION

The professional Master of Science in Occupational Therapy (MSOT) at FIU prepares entry-level occupational therapists. This intensive hands-on program equips students with the tools, knowledge, and skills to promote health, wellness, and functional independence throughout the life span. Graduates of the MSOT are eligible for certification by the National Board for Certification in Occupational Therapy (NBCOT).

Why FIU?

- More than 90% of our graduates are employed within 6 months after graduation.
- Our faculty are doctorally prepared and are known nationally and internationally for their education scholarship and research.
- We offer low, affordable tuition compared to private universities.
- Students receive individualized faculty advisement.
- Since 2007, $800,000 has been disbursed in scholarships by the OT Department.
- Diversity in our student body uniquely positions our graduates to better serve multi-cultural communities both locally and globally.
- We offer a wide availability of clinical sites for fieldwork including emerging practice areas such as low vision and community mental health.
- There are opportunities to become involved in research with nationally renowned faculty members.
- Opportunity to study in Miami’s first and only four-year public research university that is worlds ahead in its service to the community.

Program Highlights

- Florida International University is an Equal Opportunity/Access Employer and Institution.
- The NWCNHS is proud to support diversity among students, faculty and staff.
