

Nominee must be a graduating senior who exemplifies nursing academic and clinical excellence, advocacy, leadership, and potential for healthcare innovation nationally.

NOMINEE INFORMATION

Name (Last, First Middle/Maiden): Home Address: City, State, Zip: Home Phone: Cell Phone: E-mail: Certificate or Degree: Major (s): Cumulative GPA: Graduation Date: Year:

FACULTY NOMINATOR:

Name (Last, First Middle/Maiden): Campus Address: Campus Phone: Cell Phone: E-mail: Academic Title: College/Unit: Department:

All nominations and supporting materials must be enclosed in a sealed envelope and received by Hanyzer Lee-Reyes, Sr. Admin. Assistant, Office of Academic Affairs, via hanyzer.leereyes@fiu.edu, or AHC-3, Room 534. on or before 5:00 pm, Saturday, January 15, 2022

NOMINATION CRITERIA

a. Eligibility

Individual must be NWCNHS Nursing student who is a graduating senior.

b. Support materials

- 1. Completed nomination form (provided by the nominator).
2. Faculty Letter of Recommendation. No more than 500 words which should include the following:
- Academic achievements and honors.(if applicable)
- NWCNHS course or clinical exemplary work
- Career-related experience
- Extra-curricular activities
- Leadership experience

c. Evaluation Criteria

The Nightingale Award recipient should be a well-rounded and successful member of his or her campus and community who has exemplified leadership in promoting quality healthcare to others. The student should excel in each of the following areas: GPA, Clinical evaluations, and leadership activities.

d. Recognition

The Nightingale Award recipient will be honored at the Pinning Ceremony on Friday, April 26, 2019 at the Herbert and Nicole Wertheim Performing Arts Center (WPAC). Award recipient will be presented a plaque and is not expected to give a short acceptance speech. At the Ceremony, the Nightingale Award recipient will lead their colleagues in the recessional.